

DATELINE Continued . .

At CAESARS, Liz Calderon is back — She's now part of the Lew LaRocca Trio. — Ray Conlin's wit and jazzy act top things off — and Warren Snyder's management of CAESARS is making the place swing. . . .

Somebody remind me to go see Bob Barron at THE BRANCH OFFICE — after last week he probably hates me — don't blame him a bit. . . .

Johnny Prophet has one week to go after this — guess he moves on to newer and better things via the Reprise Route. . . . Jack Rosen had an every night packed house at LITTLE CAESARS in Gardena all the while Johnny appeared — I wonder if his next act will do the same? Jack picks 'um pretty well — so the safe bet is — as well or better. . . .

Remember the Four Seasons recording of Sheree? It was pretty big, wasn't it? Sure it was. But KFWB neglected it until it was so obvious that the LIBRARIAN had to schedule it to play. Times like this I wonder if the table is too low. — So dig—, FRANKIE ANTHONY has his record of JOLLY GREEN GIANT and SEVEN KISSES in Don Anney's hand for many weeks now — it's a good side — and Frankie's trying to get SAM RIDDLE on KFWB to give it a spin. But it seems that somebody isn't getting any A-C-T-I-O-N and has the record blocked — much in the same way as the Four Seasons recording was blocked. I think Sam Riddle wants to give it a spin — I also think the LIBRARIAN has too much control — dug? SOME OF THE BEST PEOPLE DO IT. . . .

And in case anybody wants to know — I drive a 1951 pink Ford woodmobile — can be reached at DA 5-1515 — and can be in the parking lot in Hollywood on 45 minutes notice. . . .

Here's one—it'll be a loaded night at CAESARS on July 10th of this year—6:30 in the evening—everybody breaks training. Fred J. Maddalone—(he's an Irishman from the Riviera) will host with Gill Sellan—and presents —bring forth to public view—LOS ANGELES ANGELS' DAY FOR THE SOUTH BAY. Angels' Night at Caesars will include Gene Autry, Firestone, Bob Randell, Fred Haney, Johnny Grant (KMPC), Bill Rigney, Irv Kaze, Freddy Frederic, Del Rice, Rocky Bridges, Harv Grissom, Tom Ferguson, Jack Papke, Kenny McBride—and all of everybody connected with the Angel club. THE LAP OF LUXURY can chalk up another one as a first in showing the SOUTH BAY'S GROWING POPULARITY to all of California. . . .

ENJAY'S Halfway House is gonna remodel this month—it'll stay open during the operation though. . . . Nardonne's will be open the Fourth. . . . Juanita Hair is a Hodad — I like hodad females. . . . SILVER SKATES RESTAURANT has a new hostess and head waitress. . . .

Pink Woodmobile will now ride off into the great and wonderful world of my doctor's office for a much-needed something for a busted skull. . . .

Footlight Theater Western Says, "We Need Speedway A New Home"

Help! The Footlight Theater is out of the pool and up a creek. It is in need of a home in which to put on its plays. The Footlight is sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, but after four years in the Benstead Plunge, is out of a home. The plays had been limited to off swimming seasons, but because of new plunge schedules, the any longer. The group is too big and enthusiastic to stop now, but is very grateful for the use of the Benstead Plunge and the Crenshaw School.

The Footlighters will be more than grateful to change the name to that of their benefactor for a chance to put on its plays. Previous plays, in part, were: "All My Sons" "The Bad Seed" "White Sheep of the Family" "Ladies in Retirement" "Heaven Can Wait" and "Dear Ruth." The group also performed at schools and clubs in Torrance.

Jess Channon, former midget race driver of Gilmore Stadium days, has made arrangements with the owner of Western Speedway, Bernard Shapiro, to take over the Saturday night racing program with one of the newest professional racing sports to come to America. Dominic Distarce will be on the starting line. Dominic, also a former Gilmore man, is considered one of the best in his field.

Western Speedway, 139th and Western, is having its face lifted. There will be a new track surface, crash wall and a new paint job. There will be a new entrance to the parking area on 139th Street. The Speedway should be ready for its first annual fourth of July fireworks show sponsored by the Gardena United Service Committee.

There are rumors a new Western Jalopy Assn. is being organized and will be racing at Western later this year. The "suicide drivers" are racing there Sunday afternoons under direction of Richard Munz.

On July 4, the Suicide Eight Drivers will provide the racing action and later the spectacular fireworks show for the Gardena United Service Organization. Don't miss it.
